

Donation Agreement

Through the years Clark County Genealogical Society has gratefully received many fine additions to its collection through donations. Thank you for your interest in and generous support of CCGS.

The following policies are provided for the donor's information:

In accordance with the donor's wishes as checked below, all gifts of books, periodicals and other library materials that are accepted become the property of Clark County Genealogical Society.

_____ CCGS has my permission to sell or dispose of all, or part of, the donated materials, in the event they do not meet the acquisition criteria for the library.

_____ Notify me within 60 days of any items that do not meet the acquisition criteria for the library. I understand it will be my responsibility to pick such items up at the library within 30 days after notification.

It is the responsibility of the donor to place a value on donations for personal tax purposes. (CCGS is a Washington State non-profit corporation, with federal 501 C 3 tax-exempt status. Donations and contributions are tax deductible in accordance with IRS regulations.)

Donor's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Donor's Name: (please print) _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Phone: _____ E-Mail: _____

| Bk. MF. CD. etc. | Description of Materials: | Value: |
|------------------|---------------------------|--------|
|                  |                           |        |
|                  |                           |        |
|                  |                           |        |
|                  |                           |        |

List additional items on back.

Received by: Librarian _____