ELECTION OF OFFICERS, POTLUCK DINNER AND SHOW & TELL

We will start the June meeting with our annual potluck dinner (note the 6 p.m. time). This is a fun meeting, with good food and good fellowship. Bring a dish to share (be sure to include a serving spoon); also bring your own table service (plate, glass, cup, silver-ware, napkin). Coffee will be furnished and bottled soft drinks or water are available at a small charge.

We need a quorum at this meeting, because we will also have the election and installation of officers. The nominations are listed below. Of course, you may make your own nomination from the floor, with the permission of the nominee.

Bring an item or two to show to others. Perhaps a special photo, book or other item you've discovered in the past year.

Also, we will raffle a Legacy Family Tree program by Millennia, Deluxe Version 6 with the disk and book, One only. Tickets are $1 each. Proceeds will help pay our rental expenses. It will be awarded at this meeting.

Beginner Classes Planned for Fall

CCGS will offer a series of beginning genealogy classes in Fall 2006. Starting September 12, classes will be held on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. till noon. The series of eight classes will be $60 for CCGS members and $75 for non-members. All classes will discuss traditional research techniques, as well as the use of computers and the Internet. These classes will also be a good refresher for anyone interested in improving his or her research capabilities.

Watch for more details on registration and class content.
